THE ultimatum has gone forth that this is to be a dancing season, a flat which will be received with unalloyed pleasure by the dancing set, for the world today is danced.

Every form of evening pleasure toward its close has a dance or two. A dance is the most expensive and really unsatisfactory form of elaborate entertainment from the viewpoint of the woman who gives the party, and most undesirable one, looked at with the society man's eye. Be that as it may, the world is dance-mad and all its social centers have decreed that every sort of affair shall be turned into a dance. And it behooves Honolulu to be up and doing, in order to stay in style.

Dinners will be followed on every occasion by a dance, and theater parties will end in an informal supper with a dance on the roof garden or a run out to Heine's for the same purpose.

A large number of homes in this city are equipped with ballrooms, or better still, lovely open lawns that are swept by the cooling trade winds, and they will be utilized this summer as they have not been for years.

Ten years ago dances were the only recognized medium of entertainment on a lavish scale, and the buds of those days danced the season through in the roomy old homes that dot Honolulu still.

The revival of the dance this year will strike a happy note as it is never too hot to dance in Hawaii. So many perfectly fine ways of entertaining are open to the hostess with a little ingenuity that one marvels that more do not take advantage of the possibilities presented. One of the very best sports here is "aqua-planing." A launch is the vehicle used; into this a jolly party assembles and two or more surfboards are left to drag behind. They are made fast to the launch, the rider stands erect on these and goes whirling over the water at a wild pace. It is a fascinating sport. Several people here excel in this outdoor "stunt." Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Miss Rachel White, Miss Laura Low, Mrs. Mary White, Stanley Kennedy, Percy Deverill and Bob Purvis have mastered this water sport.

Generally speaking, this week has been rather full with large affairs and a few small ones.

Monday evening Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole entertained with a very elaborate and handsome supper party. Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Renton Hind and Mrs. Donald Ross gave a large tennis tea. The same evening the Harold Castle gave their beautiful dancing party for the White girls. Friday night the Navy Relief Ball brought society en masse to the armory, and a wonderful ball it was, a gorgeous affair with every detail carefully attended to.

The box holders were Governor Plunkham, Admiral and Mrs. C. J. Boush, Brig.-gen. and Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson, N. G. H. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, Commander T. C. Hart, Col. Benjamin W. and Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. C. G. Ballentyne, Justice and Mrs. Edward M. Watson, Mayor and Mrs. John Lane, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. von Haman, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gartley, Judge F. M. Hatch, Col. and Mrs. James B. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Swamy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Baird, Civil Engineer and Mrs. C. W. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Riggs and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown.

cousins, Miss Rachel White and Miss Mary White of Boston. The decorations were very handsome. It was a young people's dance and enjoyed by the guests until long after midnight. Easter lilies with their fine, white waxy petals and bright-rose American beauty roses added to the spacious rooms of the handsome Castle house. The linal opening upon the broad l'alcie rollers was made a bower of beauty with its extremely handsome hanging baskets artistically arranged. It was a glorious night, the moon's rays coming in a slanting line and casting such shadows as only a tropical moon can.

The electric light globes were veiled with maline and gave a soft, fascinating, misty light. Mr. and Mrs. Castle possess a fine faculty for bringing entertaining folks together for their mutual delight. The Castles own some very choice palms and these were used to great advantage. The house is one of the most attractive in Honolulu.

The White girls have been feted very much here and are both popular. They are splendid swimmers and very graceful dancers and have been hailed with enthusiastic delight wherever they go. To the keen regret of the younger set they leave next week for their home in Boston.

Mrs. Renton Hind and Mrs. Donald Ross Entertain.
A tennis tea was the medium Mrs. Renton Hind and Mrs. Donald Ross chose to entertain about 150 of their friends. The Manoa court was the setting for this charming and thoroughly enjoyed party. Several very exciting matches were played and at the end of the playing the first prize was given to Mrs. Matthew Graham and Miss Jordan. Prizes were the new pottery flower holders. Miss Pauline Schaefer and Miss Woodford were given the second prizes, very dainty after-dinner coffee cups. The linal of the clubhouse was artistically decorated with pepper and cherry blossoms, pink hibiscus and pink sweet peas. The ladies assisting Mrs. Hind and Mrs. Ross were Mrs. Boyland, Mrs. W. P. Kendall, Mrs. G. K. Tackabury, Miss Katherine Blake, Miss Charlotte Blake, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Doris Noble, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Wyatt. The ladies who played were Mrs. Matthew Graham, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Katherine Woodford, Mrs. Edward M. Watson, Miss "Dodie" Ballentyne, Miss May Marshall, Mrs. Harold Hayelden, Miss Lightfoot, Miss Betty Case, Mrs. E. L. Gordon, Miss Gladys Halstead, Mrs. W. Greenwell, Miss Victoria Jordan, Miss Ruth Richards and Miss Maud Jordan.

Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole's Supper-Dance.
Monday evening being the anniversary of the Princess Kalaniana'ole's natal day, the prince gave a supper-dance in her honor. The house at Waikiki was a blooming garden. It held thousands of pink and red gladiolas, the gifts of friends. The living room was banked with delicate pink gladiolas and many baskets of ferns, for which the princess' greenhouses are famous. The dining room was ablaze in gorgeous red gladiolas and baskets of Australian ferns and very choice and handsome palms. The lights in both rooms were softened by a cloud of pale yellow maline and pale pink cherry blossoms. The princess, a charming hostess, was very beautifully gowned in a cloth-of-gold with an underslip of watermelon pink. She looked stunning. The prince and princess' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mayor and Mrs. John Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stillman, Mrs. Frank Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Chief Justice and Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Mrs. Elizabeth Booth, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis, Miss Leola Booth, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Abby Buchanan, Miss Maud Jones, Miss Sybil Robertson, Mrs.

Grace McEldowney, Miss Henrietta Smith, Capt. J. Johnson, Mr. Albert Lyman, Mr. Robert McCarriston, Mr. Harry Hoffman, Mr. Alapaki Smith, Mr. Laird, Mr. Kunian Evans, Mr. Ernest Parker and others.

Mr. Charles Jones, a private entertainer, kept the guests amused by his cleverness.

Engagement of Interest.

An announcement that will come as a real surprise to the men friends of Dr. G. A. Braly is that of his engagement to Miss Hazel Benson of Madisonville, Ky.

The wedding will be solemnized the latter part of June, and more definite details as to the arrangements will be announced later. Miss Benson is the daughter of Mrs. E. H. Behme of Madisonville. She is a graduate of the noted Ward-Belmont school of Nashville, Tenn. The engagement is the outcome of an acquaintance of several years, renewed when Dr. Braly visited his home in the South last year.

Dr. Braly has resided in Honolulu for the past three years and is making his permanent home here. He is a great favorite with the social set, to whom the announcement of his engagement to a girl far away will come with unusual interest.

Honolulu Society People Visit Vallejo Friends.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Florence McKernan gave a dinner party in honor of Judge and Mrs. Lymer of Honolulu, society people of the Hawaiian Islands whom Mrs. McKernan met while in Honolulu last summer. Mrs. Lymer having been a Miss Lucas, a social favorite of Honolulu.

On Sunday evening Dr. and Mrs. Fred T. Bond entertained at a dinner party given in honor of Judge and Mrs. Lymer and yesterday the visitors departed for San Francisco, from whence they will journey East. In the fall they are to return to Vallejo and spend some time in this city.—Vallejo, Cal., News.

St. Andrew's Guild and Auxiliary Entertained.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. John E. Baird entertained the members of St. Andrew's Guild and Auxiliary at her handsome Waikiki home. The house was beautifully decorated with lovely yellow chrysanthemums and Easter lilies. This arrangement of blossoms was in the house linal, while the garden linal was most artistic with its dainty cherry blossoms and lace fern.

Mrs. Baird's guests were: Mrs. William Ault, Mrs. R. B. Anderson, Mrs. E. Barry, Mrs. J. J. Belser, Mrs. J. W. Caldwell, Mrs. W. H. Campbell, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Miss H. E. A. Castle, Mrs. J. J. Mrs. and Mrs. John E. Baird Entertain at Dinner.

Mrs. and Mrs. John E. Baird had a company of friends on Friday evening to enjoy dinner with them and afterwards be their guests at the Navy Relief Ball. The dinner was a delightful affair, with its well-appointed table decorated in the center with American Beauty roses and lace ferns. Mrs. Baird is a woman of strong and delightful personality and her guests thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

The guests were Brig.-gen. and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Smith, Mrs. C. R. Pentland, Col. and Mrs. John Guilfoyle and Maj. Matthew de Laney.

Mrs. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer's Informal Dinner.

Last evening before the Navy Relief Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer entertained very informally Dr. and Mrs. Clifford B. High, Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olson. The table was attractive with its central decoration of pink roses and lace fern. Electric lights were dimmed and shaded candles in delicate lines lent a soft glow to this attractive table. After dinner this party was Gen. and Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson's guests at the Navy Relief Ball.

Mrs. James Ward Russell Entertained.
Mr. Daniel McCarriston gave a small but none the less enjoyable luncheon Wednesday of this week in honor of Mrs. James Ward Russell of Hilo, who as Miss Eunice Pratt was very

Mrs. Richard Ivers is giving a series of tennis teas at the Kahala home. They have a fine court there and playing conditions are ideal.

Mrs. Frederick S. Strong a Luncheon Hostess.

One of the most attractive luncheons in a long time was given on Thursday in honor of Mrs. John P. Wisser by Mrs. F. S. Strong. Mrs. Strong's luncheon was noticeable for the lavish profusion and artistic arrangement of the flowers used to adorn the table. Crystal baskets were most attractively arranged to form a square with loops and bows of maline at irregular intervals. The effect was unusually elaborate. Cecil Bruner roses filled each crystal basket, nodding their dainty heads at the lace fern. The name cards were hand-painted bits of pasteboard with roses.

Mrs. Strong's guests were Mrs. John P. Wisser, Mrs. Samson L. Falson, Mrs. Jerome G. Pillow, Mrs. Clarence R. Day, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Clyde B. Crusan, Mrs. Henry S. Kilbourne, Mrs. William W. Forsyth, Mrs. William E. Schedd, Mrs. Jack Hayes and Mrs. Livingston Watrous. A handsome card bag was given to Mrs. Wisser.

Miss Harriet Hatch Entertains.

Miss Harriet Hatch was hostess Wednesday evening at a very charming dinner party at her Waikiki home. The table was most artistic. A handsome basket was filled with all sorts of spring blossoms and was most effective.

Miss Hatch's guests were Miss Baatrice Castle, Miss Betty Case, Miss Alice Cooke, Miss Nora Swamy, Miss Mary von Holt, Mr. Phil Spaulding, Mr. C. L. Plueger, Mr. Carl Henoch, Mr. Bob White and Lieut. Wallace C. Philson.

Mrs. John P. Wisser was the nouse guest at a luncheon for 40 guests on Tuesday of this week when Mrs. John S. Fair of Schofield entertained in her honor. Bridge occupied the guests for the afternoon.
